To whom it may concern,

I am an Human Resources advisor working in Hong Kong and decided to migrate to Australia with my family in search of a better quality of life and education.

Having researched extensively for an experienced Australian registered Migration Agent, we finally engaged the services of John Hu who has a proven track record of successful cases.

With their professional services and experiences, my Australian skilled subclass 190 visa application for Australian Capital Territory was lodged in June and granted in October!

I am highly satisfied with the quality customer service provided by John Hu Migration Consulting and have no hesitation in recommending them to any prospective clients.

Kind regards,
