

Working as a Property Manager in a hustle-and-bustle city like Hong Kong, I have thoughts of migration for long. While I eventually make up my mind and decided to apply for an Australian skilled worker migration visa to continue my career in Australia, I had troubles looking for a professional and reliable registered migration agent I can rely on, until I meet

John Hu Migration Consultancy:

John Hu and his team are Australian migration specialists who offered great help with my visa application. Every complicated steps of document collation are sorted out quickly and my visa was granted ONLY WITHIN 5 months after lodgment.

My customer experience with John Hu Migration Consulting has been an enjoyable one. In particular, I appreciate their efficiency, professionalism and passion - their passion to clients is what makes them stand out from the others! With no doubt I would recommend anyone who is planning for Australian migration to try out John Hu Migration Consultancy.
