

To Whom It May Concern:

I am a Corporate General Manager who have been working in both Hong Kong and China. I have decided to emigrate to Australia with my family. After searching for a qualified and experienced migration consultant who could help me process my skills assessment and visa applications, I have finally decided to appoint John Hu (MARN 0746141) as my agent.

With his professional immigration knowledge and successful experience, John and his team have helped me prepare all supporting documents and employment reference for my skills assessment application processed by the Australian Institute of Management. After securing my positive skills assessment result, my subclass 190 state nomination and visa applications were lodged by mid 2015.

Finally, my visa has been granted on 28 December 2015.

I thank John Hu and his professional team for their professional services in completing my visa application. I have no hesitation to recommend John Hu Migration Consulting, an award winning immigration firm in Hong Kong, to anyone who decides to emigrate to Australia.

Kind regards,
