

26 November 2016

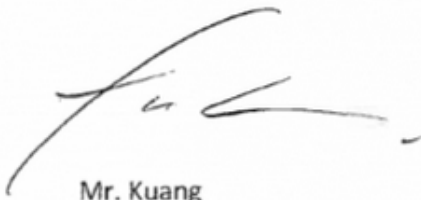

To whom it may concern:

I have been working as a senior executive in Hong Kong and have decided to live and work in Australia by starting up my new business.

Understanding a self-sponsored subclass 457 temporary work visa application was a tedious process involving business sponsorship, employer nomination and visa application, I have searched an experienced registered Australia migration consultant to process my visa and finally engaged John Hu of John Hu Migration Consulting to process my subclass 457 visa.

Helping me register my new Australia startup company in Australia, John and his consulting team processed my business sponsorship, employer nomination and visa applications, as well as assisting me to complete my business plan and guiding me every step in completing all the tedious application processes. I thank John Hu and his consulting team for their professional services to complete the visa application for myself and all my family members.

Finally, I got my self-sponsored subclass 457 visa granted on 22 November 2016. I have, no doubt, recommend you to engage the professional service of John Hu Migration Consulting to process your immigration visa.
