To Whom It May Concern:

I have graduated in Australia with a degree in computer science. I have worked in Hong Kong as a Business Analyst for some years. I am married with 2 children and have decided to emigrate to Australia where I have studied and lived for some years.

After searching for a reliable and qualified Australia registered immigration consultant, I finally selected John Hu of John Hu Migration Consulting (MARN 0746141) who has won a few local and international legal immigration brand awards due to their professionalism and best customer service.

John and his professional team have guided us step by step in preparing my supporting documents for my Australia Computer Society's skills assessment and visa application. Finally, my family members and I have been granted with my subclass 189 visa on 10 October 2014.

Due to my enjoyable customer experience and satisfaction with John Hu and his professional team, I have no hesitation to recommend anyone who has decided to emigrate to Australia or other countries to engage the professional immigration services of John Hu Migration Consulting.
