To whom it may concern

Having worked as a music composer in the local and international creative industries for many years, I have decided to emigrate from Hong Kong to Canada under self-employment.

After searching for a professional and reliable Canada registered immigration consulting firm, I finally decided to select and engage the professional services of John Hu Migration Consulting to process my Canada self-employment visa.

John Hu and his team has guided me step by step in preparing all my information and supporting documents for my visa application, including my business plan to establish my self-employment in Canada, as well as coaching me to prepare for my interview with the Canadian Immigration officer.

Finally, I got my permanent residence visa granted under self-employment. I have no hesitation to recommend you to engage the professional services of John Hu Migration Consulting, an award winning professional immigration consulting firm, to process your Canada business visa for immigration.

Yours truly,

Mr. Lau
